Invitation to Prayer

Amos was called from his daily tasks to give voice to the Word of God. As we put aside our daily tasks in this moment of Eucharistic celebration, let us stand as confidently as he did and present our prayers and needs to our loving creator.

Concluding Prayer

Father, the power of your word transforms the world and the mystery of your purpose is unfolding in the lives of your people. Give us the grace of the apostles to respond ever more trustingly to the call of your Son, and grant these prayers we make through the same Christ our Lord.

Psalms Concert by Toby Nelms

The planned concert of new settings for twelve psalms used in the Mass, composed by Toby Nelms has sadly had to be cancelled. It was scheduled for performance on March 2020 but was caught by the Covid lockdown and subject to long delay. Toby has just qualified as a music teacher and is to undertake his first two years as a teacher in Dubai, meaning he will now be unable to perform the concert with singers and choir as he had hoped, owing to ongoing restrictions on singing.

If you hold a ticket, you can get a refund on production of the ticket at the parish office, please contact us via email poole-stmary@prcdtr.org, by phone on 01202 675412 to organise. Those who purchased tickets online via Eventbrite will already have received an automated refund. With apologies.

Parishes Website

We are moving the parish website to a new platform imminently and, although key areas (Mass booking, service information and YouTube link) will work as normal, there will be some disruption as other parts are taken down and updated over coming weeks. If you have any comments or suggestions, we will be happy to hear them Thank you for your patience.

Reflection for today SEA SUNDAY - APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA

In today's Gospel we hear that Jesus sent out the disciples in pairs, but they were to take almost nothing with them – so they had to rely on the providence of God on their travels- and the generosity of the people they would stay with on the journey. Those people would be strangers to them – but the disciples were reliant on those strangers' hospitality. This requires faith.

The teaching that God's love is present in welcoming strangers and neighbours is a strong belief of many cultures. The divine lives in each of us, and when we welcome each other, we welcome God, and Jesus, the Son of God. This is the welcome of the Church to all. A call to the Church today is to welcome all and be enriched by the variety of prayer, friendship and worship which all can bring.

According to Jesus' instructions, if people didn't welcome or listen to the disciples, they were to walk away, shaking the dust from under their feet. This gesture represents both cleansing and Jesus' displeasure at those who have rejected these strangers [his disciples] – we would surely not want that for ourselves.

When seafarers are in foreign ports, they often rely on the strangers who visit them to support them, to take them to the shops, to give them internet access, to take them to a Church for mass or confession. Often, they don't even speak the local language, making things even harder.

Sea Sunday is the day our parishes pray for seafarers and fishers and support Stella Maris [Apostleship of the Sea] the Catholic charity that provides that welcome for seafarers in ports in this country and around the world. The chaplains and volunteers of Stella Maris listen to seafarers' stories, help to provide what they need, and answer Jesus's call to give hospitality to the stranger.
