- Hear the arguments put forward by supporters of 'assisted dying' and the reasons they are dangerous to disabled and vulnerable groups.
- Learn how 'assisted dying' laws have been implemented around the world.
- Understand the implications of Kim Leadbeater's proposed 'assisted dying' bill being passed in the UK.
- Be inspired by the story of one severely disabled woman whose desire to end her life was transformed into passionate advocacy against any form of euthanasia and 'assisted dying'.

Care Not Killing: a UK based alliance of individuals; disability and human rights groups; healthcare providers; and faith-based bodies. Their aims are promoting improved palliative care, ensuring existing laws against euthanasia and assisted suicide are not weakened or repealed and influencing public opinion against any further weakening of the law.

St Mary's readers existing and new

Reading the Word of the Lord at mass is an important part of the liturgy. Taking up the ministry of reader is a positive way you can serve the Church without being overly demanding of time in our busy lives. We are lucky to have a solid 'core' of regular readers, however at present we have a few vacancies at both the 9:30 and 5:30 Masses. The new rotas will run from the first Sunday in Advent, 1st December.

If you think you would like to join the team to read at Mass please contact Dick Appleton dick@appletonpoole.co.uk or 01202676350 by 11th November and I will send you an application form to complete.

We welcome readers of all ages but younger readers do need to be in year 6 or above. There will be a meeting in the Church at 7:30pm on Thursday 14th November where there will be instruction and guidance as well as the chance of discussion and the opportunity to use the sound system. It is essential that new applicants attend and that those under the age of 18 come with a parent or guardian.

Existing readers will be aware that the new Lectionary comes in to use on the 1st Sunday in Advent. It is therefore very important that all existing readers try as hard as possible to come to this meeting as Fr John will explain the changes that are needed and distribute new missals for the coming year (subject to delivery!).

As is now usual, readers' commissioning for the year will take place on the 2nd Sunday of Advent (Bible Sunday) 8th December

Who are the Catenians?

We have a network of friendships which are developed by meeting together locally, once a month, to pray and have a meal together. Our ladies join us every other month. We also enjoy additional social events together with our families. If you would like to find out more, please contact:
